BEEF AND BUTTER STILL SCARCE IN GERMANY

COBLENZ, March 26.—German officials continue to take inventories of cattle and foodstuffs generally throughout the American occupied zone. As a rule a farmer found to have three cows is ordered by the authorities to sell one to the local government. Each farmer possessing one fresh milk cow is required to deliver one pound of butter each week to the burgomaster of his district for which he receives four marks. Similar regulations apply to all foodstuffs, heavy fines being imposed in all cases of non-compliance.

BETTER TONE IN NEWS OF ITALY

PARIS ADVICES SAY SITUATION AT PEACE CONFERENCE IMPROVING.

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 26.—The Italian situation in the peace negotiations is "clearing rapidly," according to advices from Paris received today at the White House. It was stated that the action taken by President Wilson was "endorsed everywhere." Just what developments are taking place were not disclosed but it was evident that the tension was considerably relaxed.

E. C. N. TAKES TWO DEBATES

DEFEATS WEATHERFORD AND FAHLEQUAH, WILL MEET ALVA NEXT.

East Central defeated Weatherford and Tahlequah normals in the triangular debates Friday evening. At Ada the decision was unanimous in favor of the home team and at Tahlequah it was 2 to 1 in favor of Ada. Both Ada teams were trained by Prof. M. B. Molloy.

Alva defeated both Edmond and Durant the same evening and the state championship now lies between Ada and Alva. The place and choice of sides will be made in a few days and the championship debate held May 9.

The question debated by all teams was "Resolved That the Federal Government Should Own and Operate the Railroads Within the Territory of the United States." The matter of how the roads might be acquired was, by agreement, not considered.

At Ada the affirmative was championed by Weatherford, represented by A. W. White and Clay Riggs. Ada held the negative and was represented by Dewey Gilmore and Miss Johnnie McMan.

The affirmative speakers based the main part of their argument on the claim that government ownership tends to promote efficiency and that it has proved a success during the period of the war.

The negative speakers insisted that the operation by the government has been a failure, that it would work a great injury on local communities by depriving them of the taxes now collected from the roads, that the government would be indifferent to individual needs, that it is unfair to drive progressive builders of the country out of business, and that the system would lead to a plutocratic centralization of power repugnant to American ideals.

The judges were Supts. Canterbury of Checotah, Lounsbury of Geary, and Mr. Lewis of Holdenville.

At Tahlequah the Ada team, consisting of Oather Van Meter and George Baker, represented the affirmative side of the question with the result named above.

OKLAHOMA SUBSCRIBES HALF OF QUOTA

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 26.—(Special.)—According to unofficial reports by county chairmen approximately $14,000,000 had been subscribed for Victory bonds up to 11 o'clock today making one-half of Oklahoma's quota. Jackson county is unofficially reported as having gone over the top. Oklahoma City has the distinction not only of being the first large city in the state to oversubscribe its quota, but in conducting a strictly popular loan, not a single bank having participated in the grand total. It was intended that the banks should fill in the breach but by Friday noon both city and county had gone over with a surplus of $50,000. May fourth Victory Sunday will be observed throughout the state in accordance with the president's proclamation, special attention being paid to those counties if any there be which may be lagging at that time. The northwestern and southeastern counties continue to be slow.

WAITING FOR ITALY'S MOVE

MATTER EXPECTED TO REACH DEFINITE CONCLUSION VERY SOON.

By the Associated Press
With Orlando's return to Rome, rapid development of the attitude of Italy will definitely assume toward the final peace settlement is expected. It is expected that the decision on calling the Italian parliament into session will be made at a conference between Orlando and King Victor Emmanuel immediately on the former's arrival at Rome.

At Turin, which Orlando reached yesterday, he was given a great ovation and acclaimed by the people.

The council of three met yesterday with Foreign Minister Sonnino of Italy absent though he remained in Paris. A formal communique issued after the meeting said questions relative to Helgoland and Kiel and disposition of German cables were settled.

Violent fighting is reported in Munich as government troops making ground against the soviet forces. Munich is virtually isolated from the rest of Germany, where things are apparently quieting down in the face of the notification that unless the disorder closed, food shipments to Germany would be stopped.

AMERICA FEEDING HUNGRY EUROPEANS

LONDON, March 26.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Transportation of food to Germany is largely under the direction of the United States navy, but this work will entail only an addition to the vast system of food distribution maintained by the navy since the armistice. The system utilized successfully in providing for hundreds of thousands in the Near East, Balkans, Poland, Finland and Belgium will be applied to Germany.

The navy's job is to get the food to the place desired by Herbert C. Hoover and to protect it until it is taken over by responsible authorities. The navy will see that the supplies are transported to Hamburg and Bremen and guard it with warships and men until it is delivered to persons who assume responsibility for its distribution.

Thus far the navy has used 87 ships for food and supplies for people who could not live without outside assistance. Of these 63 were manned entirely by navy men and their activities covered a wide territory.

Until the task of feeding Germany was taken over the most extensive work was centered in Constantinople whence it was attempted to send food to the Rumanians, Armenians and Serbians. Food ships also were sent from Constantinople to Beirut, Baku and Constanza always with enough fighting ships to insure their protection.

From American headquarters at Fiume thousands of Czechs and Jugoslavs have been fed. It had been suggested that the navy should attempt to deliver food and supplies to the localities for which they were intended, but conditions near Fiume made that impracticable. Transportation inland is extremely difficult and fraught with danger of international complications.

It was decided that the food should be delivered at port, placed in warehouses if necessary and protected by the United States until the hungry people could arrange to take it inland themselves. It has been shown that under the pressure of necessity the people have arranged for inland transportation quickly and were willing to assume the responsibility for delivery.

The staff at Rotterdam is charged with seeing that food for the Poles is safely delivered at Danzig. The inhabitants of Danzig were not aware that the United States would protect its food as long as it was in port and viewed with alarm the entrance of a gunboat into the harbor along with the Westward Ho, the first food ship to arrive. The alarm was so great that a rumor was spread over Europe on the basis of Danzig reports that the Americans had captured the town. The gunboat still is there and will remain as long as the shipments continue.

The Belgian relief ships go to Antwerp and what supplies it has been possible to send to the Finns have been directed from the Copenhagen headquarters of the navy.

The direction of the entire system is centered in the London headquarters.

JOE McELREATH MAKES A BIG CATTLE DEAL

From St. Charles (La.) American Press.
A cattle deal of more than usual magnitude was consummated in the city yesterday, when John L. Henning sold his entire herd of stock, both horses and cattle, to Joseph McElreath, the well-known cattleman from Ada, Oklahoma. The consideration in the transaction is approximately $100,000, and the number of cattle is estimated at about 2,500 head.

These cattle are on the range near the sulphur mines, and are fine range cattle. They are in first-class condition, and were delivered to Mr. McElreath subject to the federal quarantine regulations. They will be sold on western markets and will compete with cattle from the states celebrated for their fine stock.

Mr. McElreath will ship the bees to Oklahoma in the near future, perhaps before the middle of May. These will be sold on the markets by Mr. McElreath, who is very actively engaged in cattle transactions throughout the west and southwest. A large herd of the stock will be kept here in Louisiana as Mr. McElreath is interested in a number of transactions here and expects to spend some time here at intervals in the future.

Mr. Henning is retiring from the cattle business, and will devote himself to other interests in the future.

The Oklahoman might have exerted more influence against the road bond issue had it not come out uncompromisingly against the proposition before the committee had more than considered the general outlines and had not mapped out definite plans. It was a case of passing judgment before the evidence was in.

The public is being constantly warned against trading Liberty Bonds for worthless stock in the hands of unscrupulous grafters, but still the taker flourishes. His dazzling pictures of sudden riches prove too much for a great many and they swallow hook, line, sinker and pole. The gold brick swindle and green goods game have been exposed hundreds of times, but people still bite. Suckers and fakers will always be with us.

The News extends congratulations to the victorious debating teams of East Central normal. The fact that while one side was winning the decision on the affirmative, the others was meeting with equal success on the negative, proves that they were well grounded in their subject and more than ordinary ability as debaters. No other form of literary endeavor can equal a debate in developing the thought power of a student. In fact, a thorough preparation for a debate on a live subject is equal to a course of study.

GERMANS IN PARIS.

At last the Germans are in Paris. The vanguard of the peace delegation has arrived and the others will soon be there. For half a century they have dreamed of this proud moment, but the entry is slightly different from the original program. It is not to the tread of victorious troops marching down the avenues that the delegates arrived, but a very meek bunch waiting to learn what the allies will exact of them. It is the will of the allies and not that of the kaiser that is to be executed. No Bismarck stands at the table with clenched fist and rattling sabre dictating terms, but there sits a council of grim and determined men who will point out the dotted line on which the Huns will be ordered in laconic terms to sign. Yes, the Germans are in Paris, but it is not the Paris of their dreams and the world is not cringing at their feet begging for mercy as they had always planned that it should when Paris was theirs.

PHYSICALLY FIT AT ANY AGE

It isn't age, it's careless living that puts men "down and out." Keep your internal organs in good condition and you will always be physically fit. The kidneys are the most over-worked organs in the human body. When they break down under the strain and the deadly uric acid accumulates and crystallizes look out! These sharp crystals tear and scratch the delicate urinary channels causing excruciating pain and set up irritations which may cause premature degeneration and often do turn into deadly Bright's Disease. One of the first warnings of sluggish kidney action is pain or stiffness in the small of the back, loss of appetite, indigestion or rheumatism. Do not wait until the danger is upon you. At the first indication of trouble go after the cause at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Hamlin Oil Capsules, imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They will give almost immediate relief. If you are not cured, your money will be refunded. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. None other is genuine. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

CONTEST FOR S. S. AND CHURCH ATTENDANCE

(By Campaign Committee)

A few weeks ago it was decided to hold an everybody go to Sunday School and Church campaign in Ada. Other cities have held such campaigns and have been successful. Why not Ada? Religion is as good for Ada as for other towns. Such a campaign was recently put on in Oklahoma City and thousands of people went to Sunday school and church who were not in the habit of going or who perhaps had never gone at all. 18,500 people attended church in Oklahoma City that day. Fathers came with their sons and mothers came with their daughters; brothers came with their sisters and friends with friends. Thus they made the day happy for themselves and profitable to the cause for which the church stands.

The same thing can be done in Ada. If not, why not? What can be done elsewhere can be done here in proportion to the size of the city. Ada, in its religious possibilities, is not behind the chiefest city in this great state. Therefore, this campaign can be made a success. And if the Sunday schools and churches of this city will take hold of this proposition with a vim, it will be a success—a great success.

The plan of the campaign is as follows: Tomorrow there will be a friendly contest between the men and the women of the city, including boys and girls, to see who has the largest number out to church and Sunday school. Thus men are to invite men, women invite women, boys invite boys and girls invite girls. The men and boys are to try to surpass the women and girls in numbers, and vice versa. On the next Sunday, May 4 the rivalry will be between those under sixteen years of age and those sixteen and over. On May 11 the last Sunday of the campaign, there will be no contest, but every one will be asked to turn out.

The churches of our city ought to be filled on these three Sundays. There are plenty of people in Ada to do it. There is a great host of people who seldom or never go to Sunday school or church. Let these turn out and our churches will be filled to their capacity. The church and Sunday school people of Ada are asked to do all they can this evening and tomorrow morning to invite their friends to the different services and do all in their power to see that they are there.

Remember the hours: 9:45 for Sunday school, and 11 for church. In the evening, the young people meet at 7:30 and the church hour is 8:30. At the First Christian church on Broadway, the young people meet at 7, and the church service is at 8.

TRAFFIC OVER FRANCIS BRIDGE INCREASING

Some parties have been industriously circulating reports to the effect that the new Canadian river bridge has been "washed out," "busted in two," "sunk at one end," cracked wide open, "blowed up" that the road leading to it had been closed by the Indian agent and other sensational stories. All well informed citizens know that these "windies" are of enemy origin and pay no attention to them.

The bridge is in constant use and the traffic over it is steadily growing heavier.—Francis Wigwam.

CHAPTER XVI.

The First Wayfarer Visits a Shrine, Confesses, and Takes an Oath.

How was he to find the courage to impart the appalling news to her? He was now convinced beyond all doubt that the so-called Sprouse had made off with the priceless treasure and that only a miracle could bring about its recovery. He realized to what extent he had been shaped into a tool to be used by the master craftsman. He saw through the whole Machiavellian scheme, and he was also now morally certain that Sprouse would have sacrificed him without the slightest hesitation.

In the event that anything went wrong with their enterprise, the man would have shot him dead and earned the gratitude and commendation of his associates! He would have been glorified and not crucified by his friends.

With a heavy heart he mounted the stairs. At the top he paused to deliberate. Would it not be better to keep her in ignorance? What was to be gained by revealing to her? But Miss Thackeray was luring him on to destruction. She stood outside the door and beckoned. Then she closed the door from the outside, and Barnes was alone with the cousin of kings and queens and princes.

"I feared you had deserted me," she said, holding out her hand to him as he strode across the room.

"I saw no occasion to disturb your rest," he mumbled.

"I have been peeping," she said, looking at him searchingly. "Where is Mr. Loeb going, Mr. Barnes?"

"O'Dowd says he is to be gone for a few days on business," he equivocated.

"He will not return," she said quietly. "He is a coward at heart. Oh, I know him well," she went on, scorn in her voice.

"Was I wrong in not trying to stop him?" he asked.

She pondered this for a moment. "No," she said, but he caught the dubious note in her voice. "It is just as well, perhaps, that he should disappear. His flight today spares—but we are more interested in the man Sprouse. Has he returned?"

"No, Miss Cameron," said he ruefully. And then, without a single reservation, he laid bare the story of Sprouse's defection. When he inquired if she had heard of the man known as Chester Naismith, she confirmed his worst fear by describing him as the guard who watched beneath her window. He was known to her as a thief of international fame.

"You were no match for Chester Naismith. Do not look so glum. The shrewdest police officers in Europe have never been able to cope with him. Why should you despair?"

He sprang to his feet. "By gad, he hasn't got away with it yet," he grated. "I will run this scoundrel down if I have to devote the remainder of my life to the task."

She sighed. "Alas, I fear that I shall have to tell you a little more about this wonderful man you know as Sprouse. Six months ago the friends and supporters of the legitimate successor to my country's throne consummated a plan whereby the crown jewels and certain documents of state were surreptitiously removed from the palace vaults. Instead of depositing the treasure in Paris, it was sent to this country in charge of a group of men whose fealty could not be questioned. The man you know as Loeb is in reality my cousin. I have known him all my life. He is the youngest brother of the pretender to the throne, and a cousin of the prince who is held prisoner by the Austrians. This prince has a brother also, and it was to him that I was supposed to deliver the jewels. I traveled from New York, but not alone as you may suspect. I was carefully protected from the time I left my hotel there until—well, until I arrived in Boston.

"While there I received a secret message from friends in Canada directing me to go to Spanish Falls, where I would be met and conducted by Prince Sebastian himself to the place called Green Fancy, which was near the Canadian border. A safe escort would be provided for us, and we would be on British soil within a few hours after our meeting. It is only necessary to add that when I arrived at Green Fancy I met Prince Ugo—and understood! I had carefully covered my tracks after leaving Boston. My real friends were, and still are, completely in the dark as to my movements, so skillfully was the trick managed.

"And now for Chester Naismith. It was he who, acting for the misguided loyalists and recommended by certain young aristocrats who by virtue of their own dissolutions had come to know him as a man of infinite resourcefulness and daring, planned and carried out the pillaging of the palace vaults. Almost under the noses of the foreign guards he succeeded in obtaining the jewels. No doubt he could have made off with them at that time, but he shrewdly preferred to have them brought to America by some one else. It would have been impossible for him to dispose of them in Europe. You see how cunning he is?

"He was no doubt thwarted in his

STOMACH TORTURE GONE; FIRST SLEEP IN THREE MONTHS

Mr. Heinrichs Was Ready to Give Up. Then He Found How to Regain Health.

"The first sleep I had had in three months was on the second night after I began using Milks Emulsion. I had had a bad case of stomach trouble and constipation for years and was ready to give up. I was troubled with gas, dizziness, bloating after eating, gnawing sensation and cramps in the stomach. Milks Emulsion was a God-send to me, and I want everyone to know about a medicine that will cure cases like mine."—C. E. Heinrichs, 702 S. Alabama St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Mr. Heinrichs and thousands of other former sufferers from catarrh of the stomach, indigestion and bowel troubles, have found that Milks Emulsion gives prompt relief and real lasting benefit.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles for one month, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. design to wlay me on the road from Spanish Falls by a singular occurrence in this tavern. He was attacked in his room here, overpowered, bound and gagged by two men. He knew, the men. They were thieves as clever and as merciless as himself. They too were watching for me. I do not know how these men learned of my intention to come to Green Fancy.

"They came to the Tavern four or five days before your arrival at Green Fancy," Barnes interrupted. "Sprouse told me that they were secret service men from abroad and that he was working with them. My theory is this, and I think it is justified by events: The men were really secret agents, sent here to watch the movements of the gang up there. They came upon Sprouse and recognized him. On the day mentioned they overpowered him and forced him to reveal certain facts connected with affairs at Green Fancy. Possibly he led them to believe that you were one of the conspirators. They waited for your arrival and then risked the hazardous trip to Green Fancy. They were discovered and shot."

"I believe you are right," she cried. "Then we have accounted for Mr. Sprouse, and I am no longer interested in the unravelling of the mystery surrounding the deaths of Room and Paul," said Barnes. "There is nothing to keep me here any longer, Miss Cameron. I suggest that you allow me to escort you at once to your friends, wherever they are."

She was opposed to this plan. While there was still a chance that Sprouse might be apprehended in the neighborhood, or the possibility of his being caught by the relentless pursuers, she declined to leave.

"Then, I shall also stay," said he promptly, and was repaid by the tremulous smile she gave him. He was helplessly in love with this beautiful cousin of kings and queens. And when he thought of kings and queens he realized that beyond all question his love was hopeless.

To Be Continued.

CREeping BARRAGE SPLENDIDLY SHOWN

Remarkable Scene In The Greatest Thing In Life.

A Great deal has been written about that wonderful device of modern warfare—the creeping barrage. For the first time a creeping barrage has been put on the screen with really graphic details by D.W. Griffith in his new photoplay "The Greatest Thing In Life," in which Lillian Gish has the stellar part and which will be shown at the American theatre next Wednesday April 30th.

It is a remarkable battle scene. No printed words can adequately describe this curtain of fire under the protection of which our Yank boys have repeatedly marched into the Hun trenches. You can see the heavy smoke clouds sweeping forward as though by the force of some unseen giant hand moving steadily crest. You can see the shells exploding. It is so vivid that you can almost hear the crash.

Through the curtain of clouds a bombing aeroplane takes its perilous flight; now up almost in the real clouds; now darting like an angry wasp through the smoke and the trenchers of the battle, just about the

The creeping barrage is a development of the war. Before the days of such intensive artillery fire such a tactical device was never dreamed of. This is the first visualization available to those at home.

Mr. and Miss School Teacher what do you think is the greatest thing in life.

This commission will build the proposed system of roads, the governor said. "If the road bonds carry I shall select a commission from the following names: D. N. Fink, Muskogee; C. B. Ames, Oklahoma City; Harry Rodgers, Tulsa; H. G. McKeever, Enid; John A. Whitehurst, Doxey; Wirt Franklin, Ardmore; John H. Burford, Oklahoma City; E. B. Lawson, Nowata; Z. Harris, Blackwell; W. Perry Freeman, McAlester; Edgar Fenton, Lehigh; Frank M. Bailey, Chickasha; R. W. Higgins, McAlester; C. E. Dudley, Antlers; L. W. Moore, Alva; Guy C. Robertson, Lawton.

Torrent and Lakelet.

The stream of modern literature represented by the books and periodicals on the crowded counters is a turbulent and clamorous torrent, dashing along among the rocks of criticism, over the pebbles of the world's daily events; trying to make itself heard and seen amidst the hoarse cries of the politicians and the rumbling wheels of traffic. The classic is a still lakelet, a mountain tarn, fed by springs that never fail, its surface never ruffled by storms—always smiling a welcome to its visitor—Holmes.

My sisters, the field is the great world, so wide.
In which we have planted a small garden site.
Sow there the best seed with main and insight;
See then the strong plants growing fair, side by side.
In this garden of God must true love abide.

O look to the Master to send us the light!
Nor will he e'er fail us if we pray aright
And do our whole duty, what-ever betide—
Ready to shoulder the burden, dear Lord,
Yon mansions to share with those not so blest.

With the light of the gospel as in the great West,
Over all the broad world, we would scatter thy word.
Redeemed of earth will have joy, rest, and peace.
Keep God's laws and find in him blessed release.

Our meeting last Monday was an inspiration and much information was gained, and a large number in attendance. Sorry every Methodist lady was not present.

Friday evening, May 2, the ladies of the church are to have a banquet—served by the men of the church. The object, "The Call of the Centenary Movement." We will have with us one of our council officers, Mrs. S. S. Stephens; also our own Conference President, Mrs. J. C. Fox.

Minute Meeting for women. Let every Methodist woman commence now to arrange to be present at this meeting. Just think what a great treat we have in store for us. The great Centenary Movement, and what it means to be informed. And also just think, too, of having the MEN serve the WOMEN. That alone is worth the price of the plate. The Centenary Movement appeals to the womanhood of the church as an integral force of the church and not as an organization.

Our great church is thoroughly organized for putting the Centenary over; let us follow the plan: Pray daily, recognize the stewardship of life and pay one-tenth of our income into the treasury of the Lord. When two million Methodists go from their knees to any task—it shall be done.—Supt. Mission Study and Publicity.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. NC-13

Signs of Spiritual Decline.

"Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not; Yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, and he knoweth it not," Hos. 7:9.

Let us observe some signs of spiritual declension. First we note the critical spirit. It is folly to stretch forth our hands with scorn. The abatement of feeling is another sign of spiritual decay. Rich souls are rich in emotions and beautiful with enthusiasm. To be hardened equally against the good and the bad is not a sign of hope. We must not lose our keen delight in God and the good. A relaxed conscience is an index of decay. A leaning to the side of worldliness is an ominous sign of spiritual decadence. Many people commit suicide by choking themselves to death with gold leaf as used to be allowed with criminals in China. We must not choke the higher life with gold or the silks of fashion. While spiritual decline is going on, we may quiet our consciences and not know that gray hairs are here and there. Let us not resist the lesson of the gray hairs. Let us not make light of them. Let us not pluck them out. Let us not hide them. Let us not make them another color. The tokens of decay may be made the signs of beauty and objects of pride.

WHY PONTOTOC COUNTY
SHOULD SUPPORT BONDS

By W. H. Ebey.

This road bill is an administration measure and it was the good will and approval of Governor Robertson that permitted the Ada Normal to secure an appropriation of almost a quarter of a million dollars to be spent in Ada to erect new buildings, purchase lots, beautify the grounds and pay increased salaries. Would not our failure to stand by the governor in his laudable effort to leave behind him as the great achievement of his administration a grand system of hard-surface roads in Oklahoma, prove us ungrateful and unworthy of the favor of this and future administrations?

Millions for Cement.

A road bond victory would mean a greatly increased pay roll for Ada's cement plant for many years without shut-downs.

A Free Gift.

Pontotoc County would get approximately fifty miles which if constructed of concrete, is estimated by the State Highway Department to cost $15,000 per mile or three quarters of a million dollars. In good roads for Pontotoc without a dollar's tax on the people, except the owners of automobiles.

The Automobile Tax.

Except for the fifth, sixth and seventh years the automobile tax will take care of all interest and retire one-twenty-fifth of the bonds each year. During the three years mentioned it may be necessary to use part of the one million gross production oil tax now used on the roads and wasted.

The Thomas Plan.

Every dollar of road money provided for under the Thomas plan is available under the road bond bill as are also all U. S. funds. The bond issue merely gets us the state-wide roads quicker so that we will not have to wait forever for them.

The Thomas plan requires counties to bond themselves to pay part of the cost of roads while the bond issue leaves the counties free of debt except bridges, and free to use their credit to build laterals to the state-wide road at a small expense compared to what it would cost the county under the Thomas plan.

Safeguards.

If we ever get roads somebody is going to have to spend this money. The road bond plan provides for a commission consisting of the governor and four commissioners to be appointed by him. He has publicly assured the people that the commission will be selected from among the big business men of the state.

Also there is to be an advisory board of twenty men without pay and a board of three men in each county to watch every feature of the road building. Surely these safeguards should satisfy any reasonable person.

Big Interests Against Bonds.

The railroads and other big interests such as express, telegraph, telephone, oil pipe lines, etc., are fighting the road bonds. They have their mouthpieces that try to dictate in this as in all public matters. Their lobbyists were present during the last legislature and these big interests are now cunningly engaged through their organs in pulling the wool over the people's eyes.

Prosperity vs. Bolshevism.

Shall we provide employment for the returning soldiers and the unemployed, or will you, by your vote against the bonds, plant the seed of bolshevism?

Don't let the big interests pull the wool over your eyes by creating distrust in your mind and scaring you about taxes.

They know the weak places in the human make up and are hitting you there.

A failure to vote these bonds will set this state back of other states from ten to twenty years. Be progressive—be a booster—vote for prosperity—everybody employed—good business—good times.

Ice
UsersWe Are Trying to Hold the Price of Ice Down.

Fuel alone cost us 5c per 100 lbs. more to manufacture ice than it did last year. Labor, and all material, has advanced over last year's costs some items of supplies in steel and repair parts are quadrupled.

In order to keep the price down it is necessary that you co-operate with us, we need help to do this, and to accomplish this it is necessary to make some changes in our sales system. In order to properly check our business we will have only one price to everybody. Drivers are not authorized to make rates.

Use COUPON BOOKS and get the lowest price. Telephone to the office or tell the driver the pounds of ice wanted at a delivery, and he will give you the price on the kind of book suited to your needs.

TANK IN CITYARRIVES AN HOUR LATE. PA-RADES THE STREETS, FULL CREW ABOARD.

The special train bearing the battle scarred tank from the battle fields of France arrived this afternoon, just a few minutes before 3 o'clock. Immediately it was unloaded and started a procession through the streets of the city.

The tank is of the Whippet variety, being one of the smallest used in the service. It is camouflaged with various colors of paint which would make it blend with the colors of nature and indiscernable at a great distance.

Many thousands of people were on the streets to view the war relic. They were also expecting to see the flights of Lieut. C. C. Chauncey, but the plans at Post Field would not permit him to remain with his plane to make the flight this afternoon.

The tank was manned by a full crew. As it rolled its way up Main street, blank cartridges were fired from the guns, giving one a vague idea of the actions in actual warfare.

It will leave at 4 o'clock.
